Wake Menu

As professional funeral caterers, we understand funerals are planned at short notice and we are here to quickly respond assisting you during an exceedingly difficult time to create a menu that reflects the requirements of your family and close friends. Offering many different options including Finger Food Buffets, Fork Buffets, Afternoon and Tea packages and as with all aspects of our catering we will include alternatives to meet any dietary or allergens your guests may have. We can work directly with your chosen funeral director should you wish

Hot and cold refreshments can be included with any menu. Our own uniformed professional staff are on hand if required to assist with service should you require displaying their experience in such gatherings and are polite, discreet and unobtrusive.

How Service Works

The last thing you need is to be worrying about whether the caterers will be there and will be ready.

We will send you a text 5 days before, another text the night before assuring you we will be there and ready, we will then send you a text confirming we have arrived at the venue on time

We can arrive before you leave for the service to give you peace of mind that everything will be ready for when you return

We can let ourselves into the venue you have chosen and make sure everything is ready for you when you arrive
